

For comparison: the original image

Colorize image with soft mask: color appears in the light areas.
Since dark areas block the color the image appears inverted.

Colorize image with inverted softmask: color appears in the dark areas.

Apply opacity gradient to an image (fade-out effect). Dark gradient areas at the left block the color, making the image transparent.